

Bardsey Tennis Club Open Singles Tournament 2008

This summer there will be a singles tournament open to male and female club members. Entry will cost one pound (to cover the cost of the trophy) payable to the organiser – David Ingham.

The format of the tournament will depend on the number of players who sign up, but it is likely to be along the following lines:

Proposed Rules (to be confirmed depending on take up)

- Players will be divided into two leagues, the top few seeds may be split evenly across the leagues, with the rest drawn at random.
- Players to organise their own league matches at times convenient to both players, and provide their own balls.
- Matches will be two tiebreak sets, with a final tiebreak to decide the winner if required.
- Points will be awarded as follows:
 - Turn up – 2 Points
 - Win a set – 4 Points per set
 - Winning final tiebreak (only if required) – 2 Points
- The points winner of each league will then be entered into the grand final, with an engraved trophy and the pride of the village at stake.

The league will take place over the summer months – May to the end of August 2008

Good Luck!

